KOREAN AIR LINES CO., LTD., a foreign corporation; DOES 1 through 10; and ROE CORPORATIONS 1 through 10,) Defendants.)

Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26(c), the parties hereto agree, and the Court hereby enters, this Stipulated Protective Order ("Order") governing the disclosure during pretrial discovery and the subsequent handling of highly sensitive and confidential information as follows:

1 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

2 1.1 Scope. This Protective Order shall apply to proceedings and discovery in 3 the above-captioned cases known as Bone v. Korean Air Lines Co., Ltd., et al., Case 4 No. 14-cv-01673-APG-(CHW).

5 1.2 Need. This case arises from a December 5, 2012, incident in which 6 Romeo Teodoro perished onboard a flight operated by defendant Korean Air Lines 7 Co. ("Korean Air") due to arteriosclerotic heart disease. The parties anticipate that 8 they will engage in extensive discovery regarding, among other things: (1) Korean 9 Air's policies and procedures for providing various services to passengers, (2) Romeo 10 Teodoro's health status, including his arteriosclerotic heart disease, preceding his 11 eventual death, and (3) plaintiffs' damages, as reflected in, inter alia, employment and 12 medical records, and other private documents.

13 Discovery concerning these and other topics will necessitate the disclosure of 14 what each party contends is confidential and sensitive information, such as trade 15 secrets, proprietary information, personal information for individuals who are not 16 parties to this lawsuit, financial information, Romeo Teodoro's medical, employment 17 and financial information, and plaintiffs' medical, employment and financial 18 information. Prior to production, no party can effectively evaluate the claims of the 19 other as to the need for protection. Thus, a means that enables the production of 20 documents at least to the point of evaluating the asserted need for protection, as well 21 as an order specifying how such documents need to be treated, is required in this case.
22 Moreover, pursuant to the terms of this Order, any document designated as 23 confidential where that designation is disputed can be identified as such and the matter 24 submitted to the Court for resolution.

25 In essence, in the absence of this Order, the Court would have to evaluate 26 innumerable documents individually, and this task would likely severely burden the 27 Court's processes and slow discovery. As to those documents that are entitled to 28 protection, disclosure of such confidential information is likely to prejudice the legitimate business, competitive, and/or privacy interests of parties or of third parties. A protective order is thus needed in this action to enable the documents to be evaluated and to protect against unauthorized disclosure of confidential information and to ensure that such information will be used only for purposes of this action. A protective order will also expedite the flow of discovery materials, protect the integrity of truly confidential information, promote the prompt resolution of disputes over confidentiality, and facilitate the preservation of material worthy of protection.

1.3 Application. This Order shall govern any information produced in this litigation by any party or third party, in any form (including, but not limited to, documents, magnetic media, answers to interrogatories, responses to document demands, responses to requests for admissions, and deposition testimony and transcripts, when the party producing the information reasonably believes that the information to be produced contains private, proprietary, sensitive, trade secret, non-public financial or medical information. Documents, or portions thereof, that are considered confidential may be so designated by marking them, in their entirety, as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” as hereinafter provided for in this Order.

1.4 Limitations. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords extends only to the information or items that are entitled under the applicable legal principles to treatment as confidential.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 Confidential Information. “Confidential Information” shall mean and include, without limitation, any information that concerns or relates to proprietary information, trade secrets, non-public commercial, financial, pricing, budgeting and/or accounting information, non-public information about existing and potential customers, marketing studies, performance and projections, non-public business

1 strategies, decisions and/or negotiations, personnel compensation, evaluations and 2 other employment information, and confidential proprietary information about 3 affiliates, parents, subsidiaries and third parties with whom the parties to this action 4 have or have had business relationships, personal identifying information for 5 individuals who are not parties to this lawsuit, health and medical information, and 6 financial and employment records.

7 For purposes of this section, “trade secrets” means information, including a 8 formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, or process, that: 9 (1) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally 10 known to the public or to other persons who can obtain economic value from its 11 disclosure or use; and (2) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the 12 circumstances to maintain its secrecy.

13 For purposes of this section, “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS’ EYES 14 ONLY” includes a limited subset of Confidential Information that contains or 15 discloses materials which the Producing Party in good faith believes to be of a 16 sufficiently high degree of commercial sensitivity and/or which would result in 17 competitive injury if disclosed.

18 2.2 Documents. As used herein, the term “documents” includes all writings, 19 records, files, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, emails, video tapes, audio tapes, 20 compact discs, electronic messages, other data compilations from which information 21 can be obtained, and other tangible things subject to production under the Federal 22 Rules of Civil Procedure.

23 2.3 Designating Party. The “Designating Party” is the party or non-party 24 that designates information or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to 25 discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS’ EYES 26 ONLY.”

27 2.4 Producing Party. The “Producing Party” is the party or non-party that 28 produces documents in this action.

1 2.5 Receiving Party. The “Receiving Party” is the party that receives 2 documents from a Producing Party.

 4 3. INITIAL DESIGNATION

5 3.1 Produced Documents. A party producing documents that it believes in 6 good faith constitute or contain Confidential Information shall produce copies bearing 7 a label that contains (or includes) language substantially identical to the following: 8 “CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER”.

9 If the party producing documents believes in good faith that disclosure of the 10 information contained in the documents to one or more parties would result in 11 competitive injury or otherwise compromise privacy rights the producing party may 12 mark such documents or things as follows: “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS’ 13 EYES ONLY”.

14 These labels shall be affixed in a manner that does not obliterate or obscure the 15 contents of the copies. Claims of confidentiality will be made only with respect to 16 documents to which the asserting party has a good faith belief are legally entitled to 17 protection from discovery and disclosure under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) 18 and applicable case law.

19 If it comes to the Designating Party’s attention that information or items that it 20 designated for protection do not qualify for the asserted protection, the Designating 21 Party must promptly notify all other parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken 22 designation.

23 3.2 Interrogatory Answers. If a party answering an interrogatory believes 24 that its answer contains Confidential Information, it shall set forth its answer in a 25 separate document that is produced and designated in the same manner as a produced 26 document under subparagraph 3.1. The answers to interrogatories should make 27 reference to the separately produced document containing the answer, but such 28 document should not be attached to the interrogatories.

1 3.3 Inspections of Documents. In the event a party elects to produce files 2 and records for inspection and the requesting party elects to inspect them, no 3 designation of Confidential Information need be made in advance of the inspection.
4 For the purposes of such inspection, all material inspected shall be considered as 5 Confidential Information. If the inspecting party selects specified documents to be 6 copied, the Producing Party shall designate Confidential Information in accordance 7 with subparagraph 3.1 at the time the copies are produced.

8 3.4 Deposition Transcripts. After the receipt of a deposition transcript, a 9 party may inform the other parties to the action of the portions of the transcript 10 (including exhibits) that it wishes to designate as Confidential Information. The entire 11 deposition transcript (including exhibits) shall be treated as Confidential Information 12 for twenty-one (21) days after receipt. If no designation is made within twenty-one 13 (21) days of receipt, the deposition transcript shall not be considered as Confidential 14 Information. All parties in possession of a copy of a designated deposition transcript 15 shall mark the front of each copy of the transcript with: "CONFIDENTIAL" or 16 "CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY." If all or part of a videotaped 17 deposition is designated as confidential, the videocassette, DVD, and the containers 18 shall also be marked as containing Confidential Information.

19 3.5 Multi-page Documents. A party may designate all pages of an 20 integrated, multi-page document, including a deposition transcript and interrogatory 21 answers, as Confidential Information by placing the label specified in subparagraph 22 3.1 on the first page of the document. If a party wishes to designate only certain 23 portions of an integrated, multi-page document as Confidential Information, it should 24 designate such portions immediately below the label on the first page of the document 25 and place the label specified in subparagraph 3.1 on each page of the document 26 containing Confidential Information.

27 3.6 Electronic Data. "Electronic data" means information stored or 28 recorded in the form of electronic or magnetic media (including information, files,

1 databases or programs stored on any digital or analog machine-readable device, 2 computers, discs, networks or tapes). Counsel for the Producing Party will designate 3 Electronic Data as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES 4 ONLY" in a cover letter identifying the information generally. When feasible, 5 counsel for the Producing Party will also mark the electronic or magnetic media with 6 the appropriate designation. Whenever any party to whom Electronic Data designated 7 as Confidential Information is produced reduces such material to hardcopy form, such 8 party shall mark the hardcopy form with the label specified in subparagraph 3.1.
 9 Whenever any Confidential Information Electronic Data is copied into another file, all 10 such copies shall also be marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL 11 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," as appropriate.

12 To the extent that any party or counsel for any party creates, develops or 13 otherwise establishes on any digital or analog machine-readable device, recording 14 media, computers, discs, networks or tapes any information, files, databases or 15 programs that contain information designated "CONFIDENTIAL" or 16 "CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," that party and its counsel must 17 take all necessary steps to ensure that access to that electronic or magnetic media is 18 properly restricted to those persons who, by the terms of this Order, may have access 19 to Confidential Information.

20 3.7 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If a Producing Party inadvertently 21 fails to stamp or otherwise appropriately designate certain documents upon their 22 production, it may thereafter designate such document as "CONFIDENTIAL" or 23 "CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" by promptly giving written notice 24 to all parties that the material is to be so designated. Such written notice shall identify 25 with specificity the information or documents the Producing Party is then designating 26 to be "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" 27 material. If the Producing Party gives such written notice as provided above, their 28 claims of confidentiality shall not be deemed to have been waived by failure to

1 designate properly the information as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL 2 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” prior to disclosure. Upon receipt of written notice as 3 provided for herein, the Receiving Party shall then stamp or otherwise mark the 4 original and all known copies of the documents with the proper designation as 5 described above. In addition, the Receiving Party shall use its best efforts to ensure 6 that the information that was inadvertently disclosed is thereafter restricted to only 7 those persons entitled to receive “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL 8 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” information under the terms set forth herein.

9 3.8 Rule 26 Disclosures. If a party making mandatory disclosures required 10 believes that its answer contains Confidential Information, it shall set forth its answer 11 in a separate document that is produced and designated in the same manner as a 12 produced document under subparagraph 3.1. Such disclosure should make reference 13 to the separately produced document containing the information, but such document 14 should not be attached to the disclosure.

15 16 4. DESIGNATIONS BY ANOTHER PARTY

17 4.1 Notification of Designation. If a party other than the Producing Party 18 believes that a Producing Party has produced a document that contains or constitutes 19 Confidential Information of the non-Producing Party, the non-Producing Party may 20 designate the document as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS’ 21 EYES ONLY” by so notifying all parties in writing by facsimile within sixty (60) 22 days of service of the document.

23 4.2 Return of Documents; Non-disclosure. Whenever a party other than 24 the Producing Party designates a document produced by a Producing Party as 25 Confidential Information in accordance with subparagraph 4.1, each party receiving 26 the document shall either add the “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL 27 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” designations in accordance with subparagraph 3.1 or 28 substitute a copy of the document bearing that designation in accordance with 1 subparagraph 3.1 for each copy of the document produced by the Producing Party.

 2 Each party shall destroy all undesignated copies of the document or return those 3 copies to the Producing Party, at the direction of the Producing Party. No party shall 4 disclose a produced document to any person, other than the persons authorized to 5 receive Confidential Information under subparagraph 7.1, until after the expiration of 6 the sixty (60) day designation period specified in subparagraph 4.1. If during the sixty 7 (60) day designation period, a party discloses a produced document to a person 8 authorized to receive Confidential Information under subparagraph 7.1, and that 9 document is subsequently designated as Confidential Information in accordance with 10 subparagraph 4.1, the disclosing party shall cause all copies of the document to be 11 destroyed or returned to the Producing Party, at the direction of the Producing Party.
 12 The party may thereafter disclose a copy of the document that has been marked as 13 Confidential Information by the Designating Party, in accordance with subparagraph 14 7.1.

15 16 5. OBJECTIONS TO DESIGNATIONS

17 A party is not obligated to challenge the propriety of a "CONFIDENTIAL" or 18 "CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" designation at the time made, and 19 failure to do so will not preclude a subsequent challenge thereto. In the event that a 20 party disagrees with a designation of "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL 21 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" that party shall notify the Designating Party in writing 22 of the disagreement prior to the close of fact discovery. The objecting party and the 23 Designating Party shall promptly confer in an attempt to resolve their differences. If 24 the Designating Party and objecting party are unable to resolve their differences, the 25 objecting party shall have twenty-one (21) days from the date of notifying the 26 Designating Party of the objection to file a motion seeking the Court's ruling on 27 whether the information should remain designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or 28 "CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY." The contested material shall be

1 lodged with the Court under seal. The burden of proving that the information has 2 been properly designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL 3 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," based on the standards for such designations set forth 4 herein, is on the Designating Party.

5 All documents initially designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or 6 "CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" shall continue to be subject to this 7 Order unless and until the Court rules otherwise. If the objecting party elects not to 8 make a motion for a clarifying ruling with respect to whether documents should be 9 designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES 10 ONLY," it shall be deemed to have withdrawn its objection.

11 12 6. CUSTODY

13 During the pendency of this litigation (including any appeals) and for ninety 14 (90) days after the conclusion of this litigation, all Confidential Information and any 15 and all copies, extracts and summaries thereof, including memoranda relating thereto, 16 shall be retained by the Receiving Party in the custody of counsel of record, or by 17 persons to whom disclosure is authorized under subparagraph 7.1 or by the Judge.
 18 Paragraph 9 addresses in more detail handling of Confidential Information after the 19 conclusion of this litigation.

20 21 7. HANDLING PRIOR TO TRIAL

22 7.1 Authorized Disclosures

23 7.1.1 Materials designated "CONFIDENTIAL" shall only be disclosed 24 to the following persons. Before disclosing Confidential Information to any of the 25 following persons, counsel shall ensure that the persons receiving Confidential 26 Information are aware of the terms of this Protective Order and agree to comply with 27 those terms:
 28

1 a. Attorneys appearing as counsel of record in these 2 proceedings and personnel who are directly employed by such counsel and who are 3 actively assisting in the preparation of this litigation;

4 b. Counsel's third-party consultants and independent experts 5 (and their agents and employees) who are employed for the purposes of this litigation;

6 c. Parties to this litigation, limited to the named party and if 7 that party is a corporate entity, those officers, directors, employees, in-house counsel, 8 and insurers whose assistance is required for purposes of the litigation and who must 9 have access to the materials to render such assistance;

10 d. Any deponent, during his or her deposition, who is the 11 Designating Party or a current employee or member of the Designating Party (or any 12 person who prepared or assisted directly in the preparation of the CONFIDENTIAL 13 material);

14 e. Any other deponent as to whom there is a legitimate need to 15 disclose particular materials for purposes of identifying or explaining it or refreshing 16 recollection;

17 f. Fact witnesses or potential percipient witnesses at or in 18 preparation for deposition or trial;

19 g. Outside vendors employed by counsel for copying, scanning 20 and general handling of documents;

21 h. Persons or entities that provide litigation support services in 22 connection with the taking of depositions, including necessary stenographic, 23 videotape, and clerical personnel; and 24 i. The Court and Court's Staff to whom materials are 25 submitted as evidence or in connection with a motion or opposition thereto, subject to 26 the Court's processes for filing materials under seal.

27 Such disclosures are authorized only to the extent necessary to prosecute or 28 defend this litigation. Information designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" shall not be disclosed to persons described in Paragraphs 7.1.1(b), 7.1.1(e), of 7.1.1(f) unless and until such persons are provided a copy of this Protective Order, represent that they have read and understand the provisions of this Order, are advised by the disclosing counsel that they are bound by the provisions of this Protective Order and execute an Agreement of Confidentiality ("Confidentiality Agreement") in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. The originals of such Confidentiality Agreements shall be maintained by the counsel who obtained them until the final resolution of this litigation. Confidentiality Agreements and the names of persons who signed them shall not be subject to discovery except upon agreement of the parties or further order of the Court after application upon notice and good cause shown.

7.1.2 Confidential Information designated as "CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" may be disclosed only to the following persons:

- a. Counsel of record in this action, and counsel's employees working under their supervision to whom it is reasonably necessary that the material be shown for purposes of this litigation;
- b. One designated member of the in-house general counsel staff of the non-individual party receiving the information who is not involved in competitive decision-making;
- c. Outside vendors employed by counsel for copying, scanning and general handling of documents;
- d. The Court and Court personnel and stenographic reporters at depositions taken in this litigation or otherwise during the taking of testimony at a hearing and/or trial; and
- e. Such other persons as may be designated by written agreement of the parties or by Court order.

It shall be the duty of the parties to ensure that each person given access to "CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" material, as defined herein, be made aware of the provisions of this Order. Information designated

1 “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall not be disclosed to anyone 2 other than the individuals specified in this paragraph. Additionally, information 3 designated as “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall not be 4 disclosed to persons described in Paragraphs 7.1.2(b) or 7.1.2(e) unless and until such 5 persons are provided a copy of this Protective Order, represent that they have read and 6 understand the provisions of this Order, are advised by the disclosing counsel that 7 they are bound by the provisions of this Protective Order and execute a 8 Confidentiality Agreement in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit A.

9 7.1.3 Nothing in this Protective Order shall prohibit a party or its 10 counsel from disclosing CONFIDENTIAL or CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS’ 11 EYES ONLY material to (a) the person(s) who authored the document or material; (b) 12 persons who previously received the document or material or a copy thereof not in 13 violation of this Order; (c) persons employed by the Producing Party; or (d) any other 14 person or entity, provided that, with respect to that person or entity, the Producing 15 Party and Producing Party’s counsel first approve such disclosure in writing.

16 7.2 Additional Protection. If a Designating Party believes that the 17 disclosure and handling procedures provided for in this Order are not sufficient 18 because certain material is extremely sensitive, the Designating Party shall inform the 19 other parties to the litigation and attempt to reach an agreement on the handling of the 20 material. If the parties cannot reach an agreement, the Designating Party may file a 21 motion with the court for a more restrictive order. Such motion must be accompanied 22 by a competent declaration in which the movant describes the parties’ efforts to 23 resolve the matter by agreement.

24 7.3 Unauthorized Disclosures. If Confidential Information is disclosed to 25 any person other than in the manner authorized by this Protective Order, the party or 26 person responsible for the disclosure, and any other party or person who is subject to 27 this Order and learns of such disclosure, shall immediately bring such disclosure to 28 the attention of the Designating Party. Without prejudice to other rights and remedies

1 of the Designating Party, the responsible party or person shall make every effort to 2 obtain the return of the Confidential Information and to prevent further disclosure on 3 its own part or on the part of the person who was the unauthorized recipient of such 4 information.

5 7.4 Court Filings. In the event any Confidential Information must be filed 6 with the Court prior to the trial, the proposed filing shall be filed under seal.

7 7.5 Information Protected by Korea's PIPA. Defendant Korean Air is 8 subject to the Republic of Korea's Personal Information Privacy Act ("PIPA").
 9 Korean Air shall produce and disclose relevant, discoverable information that is 10 otherwise protected from disclosure by PIPA. Such information shall be deemed 11 CONFIDENTIAL or CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, as those terms 12 are defined herein.

13 14 8. HANDLING DURING TRIAL

15 Confidential Information that is subject to this Order may be marked and used 16 as trial exhibits by any party, subject to terms and conditions as imposed by the trial 17 court upon application by the Designating Party.

18 19 9. HANDLING AFTER DISPOSITION

20 Within 90 days of the conclusion of this litigation (including any appeals), the 21 Designating Party may request that any or all Confidential Information be returned to 22 the Designating Party. After receiving a request to return, the Receiving party at its 23 option may destroy Confidential Information instead of returning it to the Designating 24 party, but must so notify the Designating Party. The request for return shall 25 specifically identify the documents or things to be returned if return of less than all 26 Confidential Information is requested. The attorney for the Receiving Party shall 27 collect, assemble and return within 60 days all such Confidential Information, 28 including all copies and extracts thereof in the possession of the Receiving Party, its

1 counsel or other authorized recipients, but not including copies, extracts or summaries 2 that contain or constitute attorney work product. If such work product is retained, 3 however, the Confidential Information contained herein will continue to be controlled 4 by this Protective Order. Receipt of returned Confidential Information shall be 5 acknowledged in writing if such an acknowledgment is requested.

7 10. USE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

8 Confidential Information shall not be used by any person, other than the 9 Producing Party, for any purpose other than prosecuting, defending or settling this 10 litigation. In no event shall Confidential Information be used for any business, 11 competitive, personal, private, public or other purpose, except as required by law.
 12 Documents that are to be protected under this Protective Order contain information 13 which the parties contend is confidential including research, development, and 14 commercial information that is valuable in Korean Air's respective business. In this 15 case, the good cause for keeping these documents confidential includes the need to 16 preserve the parties' current and/or future competitive advantage. If third parties gain 17 access to the confidential information, the parties' businesses would suffer specific 18 prejudice or harm because their competitive advantage would be compromised or lost.
 19 This finding of prejudice is made for the purpose of complying with Foltz v. State 20 Farm Mutual Automobile Ins. Co., 331 F.3d 1122 (9th Cir. 2003).

22 11. NO IMPLIED WAIVERS

23 The entry of this Order shall not be interpreted as a waiver of the right to object, 24 pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, to the furnishing of information in 25 response to discovery requests or to object to a requested inspection of documents or 26 facilities. Neither the agreement to, nor the taking of any action in accordance with 27 the provisions of this Protective Order, nor the failure to object thereto, shall be 28

1 interpreted as a waiver of any claim or position or defense in this action, or any other 2 actions.

4 12. MODIFICATION

5 In the event any party hereto seeks a Court order to modify the terms of this 6 Order, said party shall make such request by written stipulation or noticed motion to 7 all parties that must be served and filed in accordance with local court rules.

9 13. CARE IN STORAGE

10 Any person in possession of Confidential Information produced by another 11 party shall exercise reasonable and appropriate care with regard to the storage, 12 custody, copying, and use of the Confidential Information to ensure that the 13 confidential and sensitive nature of same is maintained.

14
15 14. NO ADMISSION

16 Neither this Order nor the designation of any item as "CONFIDENTIAL" or 17 "CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" shall be construed as an admission 18 that such material, or any testimony concerning such material, would be admissible in 19 evidence in this litigation or in any other proceeding.

20 21 15. NO APPLICATION

22 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Order to the contrary, the 23 confidentiality obligations of this Order shall not apply, or shall cease to apply, to any 24 information that (a) at the time of disclosure hereunder, was already lawfully in the 25 possession of the receiving party and was not acquired through discovery or under any 26 obligation of confidentiality; or (b) at the time of disclosure hereunder was, or 27 subsequently becomes, through no fault of the receiving party, a public document or 28 publicly available. Furthermore, nothing in this Order shall preclude any party to this

1 Order from disclosing or using any information or documents not obtained pursuant to 2 discovery, even though the same information or documents may have been produced
 3 by a party and designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL 4 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" material.

6 16. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION

7 Nothing in this Order abridges applicable law concerning inadvertent 8 production of a document that the Producing Party believes contains attorney-client 9 communications, attorney work product, or otherwise privileged information.

11 17. PARTIES' OWN DOCUMENTS

12 This Order shall in no way restrict the parties in their use of their own 13 documents and information, and nothing in this Order shall preclude any party from 14 voluntarily disclosing its own documents or information to any party or non-party.

15 18. NO EFFECT ON OTHER RIGHTS

16 This Order shall in no way abrogate or diminish any pre-existing contractual, 17 statutory, or other legal obligations or rights of any party with respect to Confidential
 18 Information.

20 19. EXECUTION IN COUNTERPARTS

21 This agreement may be executed in counterparts. Facsimile signatures will be 22 considered as valid signatures as of the date hereof.

24 20. EFFECT OF ORDER

25 This Order is binding on all parties to this action and on all parties who have 26 agreed to be bound by this Order, and shall remain in full force and effect until 27 modified, superseded or terminated by consent of the parties or by Order of Court.

28 This Court expressly retains jurisdiction over this action for enforcement of the provisions of this Order following the resolution of this litigation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: April 24, 2015

The Honorable Carl W. Hoffman
